Malcolm X (he became El-Hajj Malik El-Shabazz in 1964) was a major theoretician and advocate for Black pride and liberation. One of the most influential and important people of 20th century. May 19, 2000 is the 75th anniversary of his birth.

"He spoke more truth, with less pretense, than any other Black leader..." -Bill Russell.

Dear Anton + Friends, Dear Comrades,

Thank you for your warm and spirited letter, which brought the bright sunlight of solidarity into my cell. Thank you even more for your consciousness about political prisoners and your internationalism. I'm well aware of how the sensory deprivation wings were used as a form of torture against PPs in Germany and the horrors of the F-type jails in Turkey and the need to free PPs around the world. Please keep up your good work.

Solidarity,
Defeat imperialism,
Dear
(David Gilbert)
